

Some of the Details of Professional
Farm Management:

1. A complete written farm Survey with Map, and an Annual crop acreage report.
2. An appraisal of agricultural value.
3. An appraisal of insurable value of buildings.
4. The selection of a tenant whenever necessary.
5. The writing of a farm lease with the tenant.
6. Planning all crop rotation with the tenant.
7. Soil testing for fertilizer use.
8. Supervision of farming operations.
9. Marketing of rent portions of crops.
10. All details pertaining to Government Regulations, Crop Allotments, Support Prices, Soil Conservation Practices.
11. Collection of rents
12. Accounting for all incomes and disbursements with itemized statements.
13. Payment of taxes where specified.
14. Writing of insurance where desired.
15. Representing Land Owner on adjustment of any insurance losses.
16. Supervision of building repair and construction.

In Other Words . . .

Complete Agricultural Supervision

New Barn under Construction, April 5, 1950, Larson Farm

INVEST TODAY

- I N -

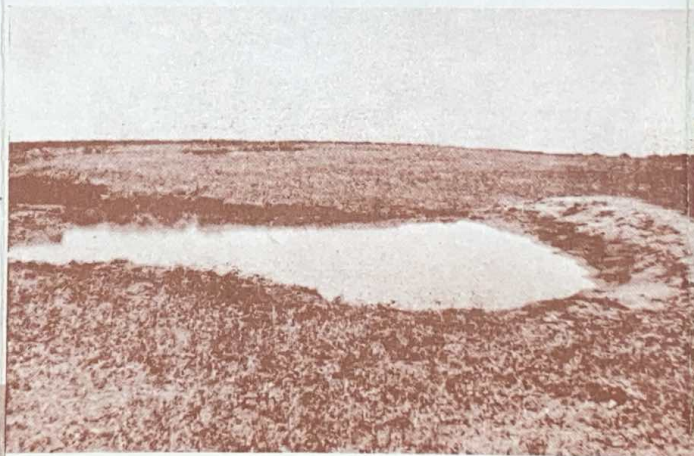

Professional Farm Management

FOR YOUR FARM

NO MONEY DOWN

All fees deducted from the rents collected.

It really will cost you nothing for experience has proven that on good farms the increased income will more than pay the small fee.

Erosion Control Pond, Ambrister Farm, May 23, 1951

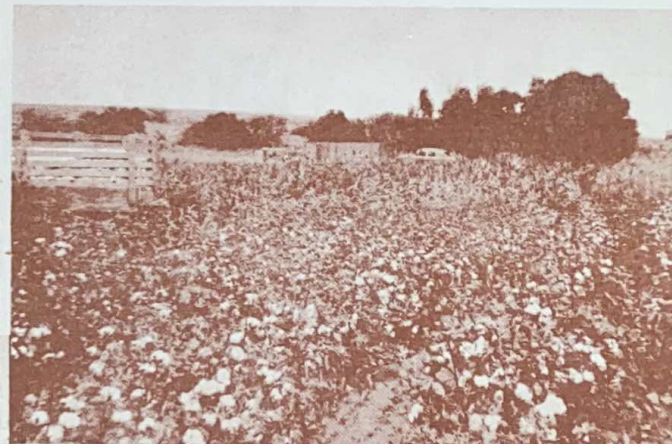

WRITE OR CALL

E. E. HUFF, A. F. M.
First National Bank Building
P. O. Box 77 Telephone 1872
CHICKASHA, OKLAHOMA

1954
HOW TO GET . . .

More Pleasure
More Profit

Cotton with Maize in the background, Heiple Farm, September 29, 1954

. . . from

Farm Ownership!

Farm Service Company

First National Bank Building
P. O. Box 77 Telephone 1872
CHICKASHA, OKLAHOMA

E. E. HUFF
Accredited Farm Manager for Oklahoma

THERE ARE WIDE DIFFERENCES IN FARM INCCMES . . .

WHY?

The kind of Farm Management applied to each farm makes the most difference.

If you live near your farm and have farming knowledge and experience and plenty of time to manage your farm . . .

Good

But..

If you are short on either knowledge, experience or time for this important work, or live a long way from your farm

THEN...

YOU WILL PROFIT BY BUYING THIS MANAGEMENT FROM THE

Farm Service Company

Blue Panicum Grass, July 20, 1954, Hummel Farm.

Combine Maize, Sept. 8, 1954, Penny Farm

WHAT IS THE

Farm Service Company?

It is the Firm Name under which E. E. HUFF, an Accredited Farm Manager for Oklahoma, has been doing business in Chickasha, Oklahoma for the past 21 years.

IS THIS SERVICE PROFITABLE TO ABSENTEE LANDOWNERS?

YES!

Records of all rents collected from 60 farms that have been under the continuous supervision of the Farm Service Company for 10 years, or longer, show that on the average rental incomes have continued to increase year after year from professional management.

Employment of the Farm Service Company is the best way to insure continual High Level Farm Rental Incomes

WHAT IS...

Mr. Huff's Background?

He grew up on a successful diversified farm. Graduated from a 4-year High School Course in Agriculture. Graduated in Agricultural Economics from Kansas State College. Was experienced in teaching vocational agriculture and was declared through rigid examination by the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers to be an ACCREDITED FARM MANAGER FOR OKLAHOMA. He has had 23 years experience in managing farms in Oklahoma for absentee land owners.

He is an Elder in the Presbyterian Church. Active in civic affairs. And a member of the Board of Directors of The First National Bank in Chickasha.

Broom Corn on Eason Livestock Farm, July 30, 1952

